KILLED BY A CAR

Little David Brown Stumbles on Track and Frenzied Mother Sees Him Crushed.

Toddling behind his two little brothers who were hurrying to catch up with a Stay party in which they belonged three-year-old David Brown of No. 404 Third avenue, the Bronx, stumbled in the path of a speeding trolley car this afterneon almost in front of his home and was crushed to death. The child's mother, Mrs. Annie Brown, witnessed the tragedy and swooned in the street as she was rushing toward the car un-der which the little body was terribly manufed.

Only a few minutes before the acci-dent Mrs. Brown had finished fitting out the three little boys for the May party. The three brothers, Hyman, eight years old. Max, six and David, the basy, were dressed in their best, and each was provided with a box of cake and mandwiches as their contributions to the May party feast. The little procession of children bound for Crotons Park a few blooks away, had passed by the Brown home as the mother came out with the three little boys. Mrs. Brown told them to hurry scross the street and fall in line, and of the approaching trolley car.
OLDER BOYS OUTRAN THE TODDLING INFANT.

The two older boys outstripped the todding David and were well across the trolley tracks before they were aware of the little fellow's danger. They turned just in time to see the child stumble and sprawl across the tracks directly in the path of the car. Motorman Henry Brietman saw the off the power. Before the car stopped both trucks had passed over the small body and it had become wedged beneath the rear truck. The car was cries from the street and the yell of horror from the motorman fainted and had to be carried from the vehicle to nearby drug stre.

The motorman and several policemen sought in vain to extricate the boy's body. Then they sent for Hook and Ladder No. 27. Meantime Dr. Schaeffer and come from Fordham Hospital with
